

Please accept this gift from us with deep appreciation for your service to our country and your constituents.

In May 2007, we confirmed with Pete VanHartasveldt in the House Ethics Committee that food items of nominal value are within the bounds of acceptable gifts.

With sincerest thanks,

Your constituents supporting the campaign for a
U.S. Department of Peace and Nonviolence